B:Side Capital Disclosure Statement

A summary of the Small Business Administration 7(a) Loan Program

The U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) 7(a) Loan Program is the SBA's primary program established to help small businesses obtain financing otherwise unavailable to them through conventional lending channels. The SBA itself does not make loans but rather guarantees a portion of the loans made and administered by commercial lending institutions.

SBA 7(a) loans can be used to finance a variety of general business needs, including working capital, business acquisitions, machinery and equipment, furniture and fixtures, land and building (including purchase, renovation and new construction), leasehold improvements, and debt refinancing. Loan maturity is up to 10 years for most uses with a maximum of up to 25 years for long term equipment and commercial real estate.

Most commercial banks participate in the program as do many non-bank lenders like credit unions. Participating lenders agree to structure loans according to SBA's requirements then apply to receive a guarantee from SBA on a portion of this loan. The SBA does not fully guarantee 7(a) loans, the lender and SBA share the risk that a borrower may not be able to repay the loan in full. The SBA guarantee is against payment default; it does not cover imprudent decisions by the lender or misrepresentations by the borrower.

1. ROLE OF B:Side Capital

B:Side Capital is NOT a bank and therefore is unable to make SBA 7(a) loans. B:Side Capital is a private, not-for-profit, certified development company with a mission to foster the economic growth of diverse small businesses.

B:Side Capital provides a variety of services to private sector lenders who need assistance with the processing, closing and servicing of SBA 7(a) loans. In order to facilitate SBA 7(a) loans, B:Side Capital will have access to personal information provided to the lender as it relates to the loan being requested and is committed to protecting, collecting and disclosing this information only as allowed by law.

B:Side Capital cannot be held responsible for any and all loss or injury, including reasonable attorney fees, resulting or arising from failure by the applicant to receive such loan, and/or any loss or liability to applicants or the business of applicants.

2. HOW THE SBA 7(a) PROGRAM WORKS

Since a key concept of the SBA 7(a) loan program is that the loan comes from a private sector lender and not the Government, a small business applies directly to a bank or credit union for 7(a) financing. The lender reviews the application and decides if it merits a loan on its own or if it requires additional support in the form of an SBA guarantee. The SBA guarantee assures the lender that if the borrower does not repay the loan, the government will reimburse the lender for a portion of its loss. However, the small business borrowing the money remains obligated for the full amount due.

If a lender is not willing to provide the loan, even with an SBA guarantee, the SBA cannot force the lender to provide a loan. Applicants should know and meet an individual lender's criteria and requirements as well as those of the SBA. To be considered for an SBA-backed loan, a small business applicant must be both eligible and creditworthy.

3. GENERAL ELIGIBILITY

Applicants must meet certain eligibility requirements. These requirements are designed to be as broad as possible so that the program can accommodate a diverse variety of small business financing needs.

To be eligible for consideration under the SBA 7(a) program, a business must:

- Operate as a for-profit entity
- Do business (or propose to) in the United States and is owned 100% by US Citizens or US Nationals who have their principle residence in the US.
- Meet SBA Size Standards
- Be an eligible type of business (while the vast majority of businesses are eligible, some are not, detailed below)
- Plan to use proceeds for an approved purpose (SBA 7(a) loan proceeds may be used to establish a new business or to assist in the operation, acquisition or expansion of an existing business.)

- Be unable to secure funds from other sources (the SBA does not extend financial assistance to businesses when the business has the ability to obtain some or all of the requested loan funds from alternative, non-Federal sources without causing undue hardship.)
- Have the ability to repay the loan on time, from the projected operating cash flow of the business
- Evidence management expertise and commitment necessary for success
- Provide a feasible business plan

4. ELIGIBLE BUSINESSES

In addition to the above general requirements, an applicant businesses must:

- Have reasonable owner equity to invest
- Use alternative financial resources, including personal assets, before seeking financial assistance

Special considerations apply to some types of businesses and individuals, as follows:

- Franchises are eligible except in situations where a franchisor retains too much control. The franchisee must have the right to profit from efforts commensurate with ownership.
- Recreational facilities and clubs are eligible providing (a) the facilities are open to the general public and (b) in membership-only situations, membership is not selectively denied to any particular group of individuals and the number of memberships is not restricted as a whole or by establishing maximum limits for particular groups.
- Farms and agricultural businesses are eligible however these applicants should first explore Farm Service Agency (FSA) programs before seeking SBA assistance.
- Medical facilities (hospitals, clinics, emergency outpatient facilities, and medical and dental labs) are eligible. Convalescent and nursing homes are eligible, provided they are licensed by the appropriate agency and services rendered go beyond those of providing room and board.
- An Eligible Passive Company (EPC) is a small entity that does not engage in regular and continuous business activity. An EPC must use loan proceeds to acquire or lease, and/or improve or renovate real or personal property that it leases to one or more Operating Companies for conducting the Operating Company's business.
- Loans involving a change in ownership are eligible providing the business benefits from the change. In most cases this benefit should be promoting the sound development of the business or preserving its existence.

5. INELIGIBLE BUSINESSES

Ineligible businesses include those engaged in illegal activities, gambling, speculation, multi-sales distribution, loan packaging, investment or lending. Contact us for any business eligibility determinations.

6. ELIGIBLE USES OF PROCEEDS

SBA 7(a) loan proceeds may be used to establish a new business or to assist in the operation, acquisition or expansion of an existing business. Eligible uses of proceeds include (this is a non-exclusive list):

- Purchase of land & buildings, new construction, the expansion or conversion of existing facilities
- Purchase of equipment, machinery, furniture, fixtures, supplies, or materials
- Long-term working capital, including the payment of accounts payable and/or for the purchase of inventory
- Refinancing existing business indebtedness that is not already structured with reasonable terms and conditions
- Short-term working capital needs including seasonal financing, contract performance, construction financing, export production, and for financing against existing inventory and receivable under special conditions
- Purchasing an existing business

INELIGIBLE USES OF PROCEEDS

SBA 7(a) loans may not be used for the following purposes:

- To refinance existing debt where the lender is in a position to sustain a loss and SBA would take over that loss through refinancing, including debts that have matured or have had a late payment in the last 12 months.
- To permit the reimbursement of funds owed to any owner, including equity or capital injection for the business's continuance until the loan supported by SBA is disbursed
- To repay delinquent state or federal withholding taxes or other funds that should be held in trust or escrow
- For any non-sound business purpose

8. SBA 7(a) TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The specific terms of SBA loans are negotiated between an applicant and the participating financial institution, subject to the requirements of the SBA. In general, the following provisions apply to all SBA 7(a) loans.

Loan Amounts: SBA 7(a) loans have a maximum loan amount of $5 million. SBA's maximum exposure is $3.75 million on a regular 7(a) loan or $4.5 million on an international trade 7(a) loan made to an exporter. Certain NAICS codes (31-33) are also eligible for International Trade loans at a 90% SBA guaranty.

Maturity Terms: SBA loan programs are generally intended to encourage long-term small business financing. Loan maturities are based on an ability to repay, the purpose of the proceeds, and the useful life of the assets financed. However, maximum loan maturities have been established: 25 years is the maximum for real estate and long term equipment. Terms for a working capital, equipment, furniture, fixtures or inventory loans should be appropriate for the borrower's ability to repay, up to 10 years.

The maximum maturity of loans used to finance fixed assets other than real estate will be limited to the economic life of those assets, which in no instance may exceed 25 years. The 25- year maximum will generally apply to the acquisition of land and buildings or the refinancing of debt incurred in their acquisition. Where business premises are to be constructed or significantly renovated, the 25-year maximum would be in addition to the time needed to complete construction (significant renovation means construction of at least one-third of the current value of the property.)

When loan proceeds will be used for a combination of purposes, the maximum maturity can be a blended maturity based on the use of proceeds OR up to the maximum for the asset class comprising 51% or more of the use of proceeds.

Interest Rates: Interest rates are negotiated between the borrower and the lender but are subject to SBA maximums.

The SBA allows Fixed and Variable rate loans: May be tied to the Wall Street Journal Prime rate, the 5-Year Treasury Note Rate, the 10-Year Treasury Note Rate, or SOFR or the SBA optional peg rate. The lender and the borrower negotiate the amount of the spread, which will be added to the base rate. An adjustment period is selected which will identify the frequency at which the note rate will change.

Loan Size:

- $50,000 or less: Prime or SBA Peg Rate + 6.5%
- $50,001 - $250,000: Prime or SBA Peg Rate + 6.0%
- $250,001 - $350,000: Prime or SBA Peg Rate + 4.5%
- $350,001 and greater: Prime or SBA Peg Rate + 3.0%

Percentage of Guarantee: The SBA can guarantee up to 85% on loans equal to or less than $150,000 and up to 75% on loans greater than $150,000. (A special International Trade loan program can provide a maximum guarantee of up to 90% to small businesses involved in exporting) or borrowers in the 31-33 NAICS code. On an SBA Express loan, the SBA guarantees 50%.

Fees: To offset the costs of its loan programs to the taxpayer, the SBA charges lenders an annual service fee for each loan approved and disbursed. The amount of the fees is based on the guaranteed portion of the loan. The lender's annual service fee to SBA is based on the outstanding balance of the guaranteed portion of the loan. It is included in the interest rate the lender charges and cannot be separately passed on to the borrower. Legislation provides for this fee to remain in effect for the term of the loan. This fee is paid to the SBA directly by the lender from loan payments received. The following guarantee fee structure applies (subject to change each FY). See our website for current fees.

Prohibited Fees: Origination fees, commitment fees, points, brokerage fees, bonus points, and other fees that could be charged to the SBA loan applicant are prohibited. (The only time a commitment fee may be charged is for a loan made under the Export Working Capital Loan Program.)

A Lender may charge an applicant reasonable fees (consistent with those fees the Lender charges on its similarly-sized, non-SBA guaranteed commercial loans) for packaging and other service. The Lender must itemize for the Applicant in writing any fees charged in association with the 7(a) loan.

The Applicant is responsible for deciding whether fees are reasonable. SBA may review these fees at any time to determine strictly that service and packaging fees are consistent with those fees the Lender charges on its similarly-sized, non-SBA guaranteed commercial loans. Lender must refund any such service and packaging fee SBA determines is or was inconsistent with those fees the Lender charges on its similarly-sized, non-SBA guaranteed commercial loans.

"Packaging services" include assisting the Applicant with completing one or more applications, preparing a business plan, cash flow projections, and other documents related to the application.

SBA permits the Lender to charge the Applicant a flat fee of $2,500 per loan. The Lender must disclose any amounts charged to the Applicant by the Lender in E-Tran.

For fee amounts in excess of $2,500, the Lender must complete an SBA Form 159.

For fees charged on an hourly rate, the fees must be reasonable and customary for the services actually performed and consistent with fees charged on an hourly rate for the Lender's similarly-sized non-SBA guaranteed commercial loans.

For fees charged based on a percentage of the loan amount, the fee may not exceed what the Lender charges on a percentage basis for the Lender's similarly-sized non-SBA guaranteed commercial loans or the following, whichever is less:

- 5% on loans $150,000 or less;
- 3% for loans in excess of $150,000;
- the maximum fee that may be charged to an Applicant on a percentage basis is $30,000.

Prepayment Penalties: Only apply when a loan has a maturity of 15 years or more and the borrower is voluntarily prepaying more than 25% of the outstanding balance within the first 3 years of the date of the first disbursement (not approval) of the loan proceeds. In this case, the prepayment fee is:

- During the first year after disbursement, 5% of the amount
- During the second year after disbursement, 3% of the amount of the prepayment
- During the third year after disbursement, 1% of the amount of the prepayment

9. LEASING EXCESS SPACE POLICY

If an expansion project involves the acquisition of an existing building, a small business applicant(s) must occupy at least 51% of the total building space. SBA 7(a) loan program proceeds may not be utilized to tenant finish any portion of the building not being immediately occupied by that small business.

On an expansion project involving new construction, the small business applicant(s) must initially occupy 60% of the total building space, intend to occupy additional space within three years, and expect to occupy at least 80% of the total building space within ten years. No more than 20% of the total building space may be permanently leased out. As for an existing building project, 7(a) loan proceeds may not be utilized to tenant-finish any portion of the building not being initially occupied by the small business applicant(s).

10. "DO-IT-YOURSELF" CONSTRUCTION

Situations where the borrower is also the project contractor have generally proved to be an unsatisfactory arrangement on SBA loans. However, "do-it-yourself" construction and/or the installation of machinery and equipment, or situations where the borrower acts as its own contractor, may be permitted as long as it is possible to justify and document the following:

- The borrower/contractor is experienced in the type of construction and has all appropriate licenses
- The cost is the same as, or less than, what an unaffiliated contractor would charge as evidenced by two (2) independent bids on the work
- The borrower/contractor will NOT earn a profit on the construction.

11. SIZE ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

A small business applicant, together with its affiliates, generally may not have a tangible net worth in excess of $20 million, and may not have an average net income after taxes in excess of $6.5 million (two year average). Some exceptions are allowed to this general rule.

12. PERSONAL/CORPORATE GUARANTEES

Personal guarantees are required from EVERY person or entity owning 20% or more of a business for an SBA 7(a) loan. A personal guarantor is required on EVERY SBA 7(a) loan, even if no one owns more than 20%. When deemed necessary for credit or other reasons, SBA or the Lender may require other appropriate individuals to provide a full or limited guarantee of the loan without regard to the percentage of their ownership interests, if any.

13. LIFE INSURANCE

The lender must follow their internal policy for similarly sized non-SBA guaranteed commercial loans. Unless the loan is large and there is a collateral shortfall, life insurance will be required.

14. PRIOR BANKRUPTCIES

Full disclosure of prior bankruptcies is required.

15. CHILD SUPPORT COMPLIANCE

No principal who owns at least 50% of the ownership or voting interest in a company applying for financing under the SBA 7(a) program, may be delinquent more than 60 days under the terms of any (1) administrative order, (2) court order, or (3) repayment agreement that requires payment of child support. A certification of compliance will be required before any funds will be disbursed under the SBA 7(a) loan program.

16. EQUAL CREDIT OPPORTUNITY

The Federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discriminating on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, age (provided the applicant has the capacity to enter into a binding contract), handicap, because all or part of the applicant's income derives from any public assistance program, or, because the applicant has in good faith exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act.

17. IDENTIFICATION PROCEDURES

To help fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, federal law requires 7(a) lenders to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who applies for a loan. This means that they will ask for a name, address, date of birth, and other information, including copies of a driver's license or other identifying document.

18. CREDITWORTHINESS

For loan requests of $350,000 or less, the small business applicant will initially apply through the 7(a) Small Loan program. Effective March 1, 2026, SBA discontinued mandatory use of the SBSS credit score for 7(a) Small Loans made by federally regulated lenders. Federally regulated lenders must instead apply commercial credit analysis procedures and, if desired, an internal business credit scoring model permitted by their primary Federal regulator — provided the model does not rely solely on consumer credit bureau data and is supplemented by the lender's customary commercial underwriting. If the borrower is unable to qualify under the Small Loan criteria, then the loan must be processed following the procedures for either Standard 7a loans or SBA Express Loans.

For loans over $350,000, the Lender's credit analysis must include:

- Brief description and history of the business
- Management analysis
- A financial analysis of repayment ability based on historic financial statements and/or tax returns and detailed projections, including the supporting assumptions
- Lenders must obtain and analyze the two most recent months of commercial bank activity or statements on the primary operating account and include them within their credit file. The commercial bank activity is to be used by the Lenders to confirm the commercial debts and obligations in the debt service coverage calculation.
- Spread and analysis of pro-forma balance sheet
- Ratio calculations for current ratio, debt/net worth, debt service coverage and any others significant to the business such as turnover ratios
- Analysis of sufficient working capital to support projected sales growth in next 12 months
- Debt service coverage ratio of 1:10:1 or greater on a historic and/or projected basis and 1:1 on a global basis
- Global cash flow analysis including impact of affiliates and strength of personal guarantors
- Collateral adequacy
- Lender must determine if the equity position, any required equity injection and pro-forma debt-to-worth are acceptable based on the factors related to the type of business, experience of management and the level of competition in the area. SBA does require a minimum 10% equity contribution based on total project costs on loans to fund start-up business and on loans to fund a business acquisition resulting in a complete change of ownership or partner buy-out.
- Explanation and justification for the refinance of any debts
- Analysis of credit and rationale for recommending approval, AND
- Discussion and analysis of competition, seller financing, standby-by agreements, 90+ delinquencies, trade disputes and/or Federal/State/local citations as applicable

As applicable, the lender should also provide a discussion/analysis of the business valuation used to support the business acquisition purchase price; a discussion of any liens/judgments/bankruptcy filings; and a discussion of other relevant information such as franchise success rate.

19. CREDIT ALERT VERIFICATION REPORTING SYSTEM (CAIVRS)

Lender must inform the small business applicant that if the small business defaults on the SBA-guaranteed loan and SBA suffers a loss, the names of the small business and the guarantors of the SBA-guaranteed loan will be referred for listing in the CAIVRS database, which may affect their eligibility for further financial assistance.

21. SYSTEM FOR AWARDS MANAGEMENT'S (SAM) EXCLUDED PARTIES LIST SYSTEM

Lender is required to consult the System for Awards Management's (SAM) Excluded Parties List System for each loan applicant and all associates including but not limited to the passive real estate entity, the operating company, each 20% or greater owner of either and each key employee. If any are listed as suspended, debarred, revoked or otherwise excluded by SBA or another Federal agency, the small business will be ineligible for SBA financing.

Comments about this time or the information requested should be sent to: Small Business Administration, Director, Records Management Division, 409 3rd St., SW, Washington DC 20416, and/or SBA Desk Officer, Office of Management and Budget, New Executive Office Building, Washington DC 20503. PLEASE DO NOT SEND FORMS TO THESE ADDRESSES.

Federal Funding Accountability and Transparency Act of 2006, as amended (31 U.S.C. 6101 Note) - SBA routinely publishes information related to this loan application (e.g., name and address of Borrower, amount of loan) on USAspending.gov, as required by the Federal Funding Accountability and Transparency Act of 2006, as amended.

Privacy Act (5 U.S.C. 552a); Collection of Social Security Number (31 U.S.C. 7701)

Authorities and Purpose for Collecting Information: SBA is collecting the information on this form, including social security numbers (SSNs) and other personal information, to make a character and credit eligibility decision in connection with you or your company’s application for SBA assistance. SBA may also use SSNs and other taxpayer identification numbers (TINs) for the purpose of collecting and reporting on any delinquent fees or other amounts owed SBA. Under the provisions of 31 U.S.C. 7701, the Administrator shall require a person applying for a loan under the program to provide that person’s TIN; therefore, the Applicant business and any guarantor of the loan must provide their SSNs or other TINs in order to do business with SBA and not providing your SSN or TIN will impact the loan decision.

SBA also determines eligibility of the Applicant business in accordance with regulations under 13 CFR 120.110(n). SBA is specifically authorized to verify your criminal history, or lack thereof, pursuant to section 7(a)(1)(B), of the Small Business Act, 15 USC Section 636(a)(1)(B). In addition, for all forms of assistance, SBA is authorized to make all investigations necessary to ensure that a person has not engaged in acts that violate or will violate the Small Business Act, 15 U.S.C. 634(b)(11). SBA also uses the SSN to distinguish the Applicant and its owners of the Applicant from other individuals with the same or similar name or other personal identifiers. This use is permitted under Executive Order 9397.

Routine Uses: Some of the information collected may be checked against criminal history indices of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. When the information collected indicates a violation or potential violation of law, whether civil, criminal, or administrative in nature, SBA may refer it to the appropriate agency, whether Federal, State, local, or foreign, charged with responsibility for or otherwise involved in investigation, prosecution, enforcement or prevention of such violations. See SBA’s Privacy Act System of Records, at 74 Fed. Reg. 14890 (2009) and 82 Fed. Reg. 23026 (2021) (as amended from time to time) for other published routine uses for the collected information.

OMB Control No.: 3245-0348

Expiration Date: 6/30/2027

Right to Financial Privacy Act of 1978 (12 U.S.C. § 3401 et seq.) – As required by the Right of Financial Privacy Act of 1978, SBA provides this notice of SBA's right to access financial records held by financial institutions that are or have been doing business with you or your business, including any financial institutions participating in a loan or loan guarantee. The law provides that SBA shall have a right of access to your financial records in connection with its consideration or administration of assistance to you in the form of a Government loan or loan guaranty agreement. SBA is required to provide a certificate of its compliance with the Act to a financial institution in connection with its first request for access to your financial records, after which no further certification is required for subsequent access. The law also provides that SBA's access rights continue for the term of any approved loan or loan guaranty agreement.

No further notice to you of SBA's access rights is required during the term of any such agreement. The law also authorizes SBA to transfer to another Government authority any financial records included in an application for a loan, or concerning an approved loan or loan guarantee, as necessary to process, service or foreclose on a loan or loan guarantee or to collect on a defaulted loan or loan guarantee. No other transfer of your financial records to another Government authority will be permitted by SBA except as required or permitted by law.

Disclosure of Information – Requests for information about another party may be denied unless SBA has the written permission of the individual to release the information to the requestor or unless the information is subject to disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act. The Privacy Act authorizes SBA to make certain "routine uses" of information protected by that Act. One such routine use is the disclosure of information maintained in SBA's system of records when this information indicates a violation or potential violation of law, whether civil, criminal, or administrative in nature. Specifically, SBA may refer the information to the appropriate agency, whether Federal, State, local or foreign, charged with responsibility for, or otherwise involved in investigation, prosecution, enforcement or prevention of such violations. Another routine use is disclosure to other Federal agencies conducting background checks but only to the extent the information is relevant to the requesting agencies' function. See, 74 F.R. 14890 (2009), and as amended from time to time for additional background and other routine uses.

Debt Collection Act of 1982 and Debt Collection Improvement Act of 1996 (5 U.S.C. § 5514 note and 31 U.S.C. § 3701 et seq.) – These laws require SBA to aggressively collect any loan or other payments which become delinquent. SBA must obtain your taxpayer identification number when you apply for a loan. If you receive a loan, and do not make payments as they come due, SBA may take one or more of the following actions:

- Report the status of your loan(s) or other debt owed to SBA to credit bureaus
- Hire a collection agency to collect your loan or other delinquent debt
- Offset your income tax refund or other amounts due to you from the Federal Government
- Suspend or debar you or your company from doing business with the Federal Government
- Refer your loan or other delinquent debt to the Department of Justice or other attorneys for litigation
- Foreclose on collateral or take other action permitted in the loan instruments
- If you default on an SBA loan and fail to fully reimburse SBA for any resulting loss, refer you to the computer database of delinquent Federal debtors maintained by the Department of Housing and Urban Development, or other Federal agency, which may disqualify you from receiving financial assistance from other Federal agencies. In addition, unless SBA is reimbursed in full for the loss, you will not be eligible for additional SBA financial assistance.

Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552) -- This law provides, with some exceptions, that SBA must supply information reflected in agency files and records to a person requesting it. Information about approved loans that is generally released includes, among other things, statistics on our loan programs (individual Borrowers are not identified in the statistics) and other information such as the names of the Borrowers, the amount of the loan, and the type of loan. Proprietary data on a Borrower would not routinely be made available to third parties. All requests under this Act are to be addressed to the SBA's Freedom of Information/Privacy Acts Office and be identified as a Freedom of Information request.

Flood Disaster Protection Act (42 U.S.C. 4011) -- Regulations have been issued by the Federal Insurance Administration (FIA) and by SBA implementing this Act and its amendments. These regulations prohibit SBA from making certain loans in an FIA designated floodplain unless Federal Flood insurance is purchased as a condition of the loan. Failure to maintain the required level of flood insurance makes the Applicant ineligible for any financial assistance from SBA, including disaster assistance.

Executive Orders -- Floodplain Management and Wetland Protection (42 F.R. 26951 and 42 F.R. 26961) -- SBA discourages settlement in or development of a floodplain or a wetland. This statement is to notify all SBA loan Applicants that such actions are hazardous to both life and property and should be avoided. The additional cost of flood preventive construction must be considered in addition to the possible loss of all assets and investments due to a future flood.

Executive Order 11738 -- Environmental Protection (38 F.R. 25161) – The Executive Order charges the SBA with administering its loan programs in a manner that will result in effective enforcement of the Clean Air Act, the Federal Water Pollution Act and other environmental protection legislation. SBA must, therefore, impose conditions on some loans. By acknowledging receipt of this form and presenting the application, all Applicant small businesses borrowing $100,000 or more in direct funds stipulate to the following:

- That any facility used, or to be used, by the subject firm is not cited on the EPA list of Violating Facilities.
- That subject firm will comply with all the requirements of Section 114 of the Clean Air Act (42 U.S.C. 7414) and Section 308 of the Water Act (33 U.S.C. § 1318) relating to inspection, monitoring, entry, reports and information, as well as all other requirements specified in Section 114 and Section 308 of the respective Acts, and all regulations and guidelines issued thereunder.
- That subject firm will notify SBA of the receipt of any communication from the Director of the Environmental Protection Agency indicating that a facility utilized, or to be utilized, by subject firm is under consideration to be listed on the EPA List of Violating Facilities.

Authorities and Purpose for Collecting Information: SBA is collecting the information on this form, including social security numbers and other personal information, to make a character and credit or other eligibility decision in connection with you or your company's application for SBA assistance. SBA may also use social security numbers for the purpose of collecting and reporting on any delinquent fees or other amounts owed SBA, where applicable.

For purposes of SBA's financial assistance programs, 31 U.S.C. 7701 requires loan applicants and guarantors, or any indemnitor of a surety bond to provide their social security numbers, or other taxpayer identification numbers. Failure to provide this information would affect your ability to obtain an SBA loan or bond. For other individuals signing this form, the submission of the social security number is voluntary and failure to provide your social security number may not affect any right, benefit or privilege to which you are entitled. However, your social security number or other taxpayer identification number helps SBA to distinguish you from other individuals with the same or similar name or other personal identifier. This use is permitted under Executive Order 9397. Personal information collected is protected to the extent permitted by law, including the Freedom Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552, and the Privacy Act 5 U.S.C. 552. Right to Financial Privacy Act of 1978 (12 U.S.C. 3401) -- This is notice to you as required by the Right to Financial Privacy Act of 1978, of SBA's access rights to financial records held by financial institutions that are or have been doing business with you or your business, including any financial institutions participating in a loan or loan guaranty. The law provides that SBA shall have a right of access to your financial records in connection with its consideration or administration of assistance to you in the form of a Government guaranteed loan or guaranteed bond. SBA is required to provide a certificate of its compliance with the Act to a financial institution in connection with its first request for access to your financial records, after which no further certification is required for subsequent accesses. The law also provides that SBA's access rights continue for the term of any approved loan guaranty agreement or any approved bond agreement. No further notice to you of SBA's access rights is required during the term of any such agreement. The law also authorizes SBA to transfer to another Government authority any financial records included in an application for a loan or bond guarantee, or concerning an approved loan or loan guarantee or bond guarantee, as necessary to process, service or foreclose on a loan guaranty or collect on a defaulted loan guaranty, or to process or service the bond guarantee. No other transfer of your financial records to another Government authority will be permitted by SBA except as required or permitted by law.

Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552)

This law provides, with some exceptions, that SBA must supply information contained in agency files and records to a person requesting it. Information about approved loans that will be automatically released includes, among other things, statistics on our loan programs (individual borrowers are not identified in the statistics), and other information such as the names of the borrowers (and their officers, directors, stockholders or partners), the collateral pledged to secure the loan, the amount of the loan, its purpose in general terms, and the maturity. With respect to SBA's bond guarantee program, SBA will release, among other things, statistics on the Surety Bond Guarantee (SBG) programs and other information such as the names of small businesses (and their officers, directors, stockholders or partners) and the amount of the bond guarantees. Proprietary data on a borrower would not routinely be made available to third parties. All requests under this Act are to be addressed to the nearest SBA office and be identified as a Freedom of Information request.
